PROCEEDINGS

Case Management Conference conducted via videoconference. The current status of the government's noncompliance with the statute and this Court's injunction and the plans of the government to come into compliance are briefly discussed. While the Court has sympathy for the difficulties faced by the individuals who are trying to comply with the statutory deadlines and permanent injunction, there is no excuse for the failure of the government to comply with the law, particularly as its noncompliance flows directly from decisions made by the current Administration. Timely provision of A-files is vital for immigration adjudication of all types and backsliding on the progress that had been made on this issue will not be countenanced.

A further Case Management Conference is set for September 23, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. The next Compliance Report is due September 15. A joint case management statement may be filed as late as noon on September 22, 2025.
